| 履修条件 注意事項 Requirements for registration | There are no prerequisites for this course. Any upper-level (third- and fourth-year) undergraduates and graduate students from NUPACE, JACS, LCS or the Graduate School of Humanities are welcome to enroll. Auditors also welcome. | | | |
| 授業の目的 Purpose | Students will gain a deeper understanding of modes of writing in Heian Japan as well as of the social, cultural and ideological conditions that shaped them. Students will become familiar with some of the basic features of classical Japanese writing and orthography. Students will develop research and communication skills through discussion, presentation, and composition of academic research. | | | |
| 授業の内容 授業の方法 Content | In this seminar, we will read poetry, prose narrative and essays, mostly dating from the Heian period (794-1185). While most of the primary readings for the course will be in English translation, we will also spend some time reading some brief key passages of these texts in the original classical language—and, as time permits, to get some practice reading classical orthography. Students are not required have prior training in these areas or even proficiency in the Japanese language, only a willingness to have some fun learning about the aesthetics of classical Japanese writing. | | | |
| 教科書 テキスト Textbooks | All readings will be made available to students on the first day of class. There are no textbooks to purchase. | | | |
