

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Kei Takatsuka

Hello, I am Kei, studying business at Harvard Business School, a graduate school at Harvard University focusing on business research and graduate degree programs. After completing my Master's in Science at Nagoya University, I joined Boston Consulting Group (BCG) as a business management consultant. I came to Harvard University in 2020 and soon will start a new job in Education Technology (EdTech) industry here in Boston, US.

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Iida Yuuki

Hello, my name is Yuuki Iida, Career Advisor for International Students. I have worked with more than 20 universities and provided career support to more than 500 international students in both Japanese and English. Job hunting in Japan can be really complicated and sometimes stressful. However, if you utilize this system well and use the many resources available to you while job hunting, your career will be expanded. Join us and find out what you can do for your future career at this event.

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Volga Ozben

Hi! This is Volga and I am one of the first alumni of G30 Law and Political Science program. Since February 2021, I have been working as a recruitment consultant specializing in sales and marketing roles in the IT industry. Knowing the recruitment market for professionals and new graduates, I hope to be able to answer some of your questions.

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Shingo Sarkar

Hello everyone, I am a G30 alumni currently working at the Deutsche Bank Group, FIC sales and trading. In the course of job hunting, I participated in about 15 internships including companies like EY Parthenon, Adecco, SmartNews, JT, etc. It's a great pleasure to join the Career Path Seminar - please feel free to ask anything in mind!

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Hikaru Sugiura

Hello! My name is Hikaru Sugiura, a second year master's student in the graduate school of engineering. Currently, I am participating in an overseas internship program called "Vulcanus in Europe". Are you interested in working abroad? Do you major in science or engineering? If so, this internship program is what you are looking for. At the seminar, I will share with you my application experience. I am looking forward to seeing you!

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>

NU-EMI CAREER PATH SEMINAR

Shimuran Kitahara

Hello Everyone! My name is Shimuran Kitahara, and I am currently a 4th year School of Law student at Nagoya University. I started my job-hunting from November last year (which is a bit unusual for job hunting start time), and got a job offer from an IT consultant company in Tokyo. I have experienced both Japanese and English style of recruitment process, so I will love to share my experiences as well as answer any questions that you may have!

Sign up by June 15th (Wednesday, 3rd Week of June) at <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/85HWJ69>