

This class teaches basic quantitative analysis skills. Only basic math skills are necessary, and because this class is mainly quantitative a very high level of English is not required.

This is actually one of my easiest classes for Japanese students since there is no writing requirement - assignments are mainly quantitative.

Social Science Analysis and Methods I

David Green