

Linear Algebra is one of the most important tools for every student of natural sciences. This course will start from the beginning and would be the perfect opportunity to take an english lecture, since the english used in math classes is quite simple! Feel free to contact me if you have any questions on the course.

